

Regional Planning Agency has an opening for a Regional Planner to support its four county transportation planning activities. The successful candidate will possess the ability to develop, implement and manage various programs, has excellent grant writing skills, and is adept at public speaking. The position requires excellent written and verbal communication skills, as well as the ability to prepare, research and administer grants and complete tasks with quality and on time performance. The ability to effectively use Arc GIS and GIS tools as well as solid computers skills is a must. A Bachelor Degree (Masters preferred) in planning, geography or related field is required. Visit the MACOG website at www.macog.com. Send your resume, a recent example of your writing ability as well as a list of three references to: Attn: Executive Director – www.macogdir@macog.com