

Pikes Peak Area Council of Governments Executive Director

PPACG is a voluntary organization of 16 local governments serving the Pikes Peak region's cities, towns, and counties. The governing body of PPACG, the Board of Directors, is composed of elected officials appointed by the member governments. Serving as a forum for local officials to discuss regional opportunities and issues PPACG has the following designations and program areas:

- Metropolitan Planning Organization for the Colorado Springs Urbanized Area
- Administration of the Pikes Peak Rural Transportation Authority
- Area Agency on Aging for the Pikes Peak region
- Lead air-quality planning agency for the Colorado Springs Metropolitan Area
- Lead water-quality planning agency for the Pikes Peak region
- Military impact planning

We are seeking a dynamic leader to serve in the role of Executive Director. The position reports to the organization's Board of Directors.

General responsibilities for the new Executive Director include leading the organization in maintaining and improving all current programs, as well as managing the organization's strategic planning process. Critical to this position is the ability to maintain positive public relationships with governmental, community, and other partners.

For more information, including a detailed job description, the 2017 Work Program, and application, contact Barb Watson at BWatson@ppacg.org

General information on PPACG can be found online at www.ppacg.org.