EXECUTIVE BRIEF

Colleagues,

Thank you to those who joined us in Santa Monica for our 2013 Executive Directors' Conference last week! Your attendance and active participation ensured that we had lively conversation and meaningful discussion. Thank you as well to our local host, the Southern California Association of Governments, for their hospitality and assistance in planning and preparing for both the conference and our Board of Directors meeting. Without your active contribution and feedback, this year's conference could not have been the success that it was! Post conference materials and presentations will be sent to attendees and available on the conference website within the next week.

We also welcomed two new members to our Executive Directors Council – Kirby Bowers, representing North Carolina and South Carolina, and John Getchey, representing Ohio and Michigan.

While some of us were in Santa Monica, Mia Colson was in Irvine, CA at the 2013 Solar Decathlon, sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy, to promote our SunShot Solar Outreach Partnership project. For additional information on this project and our work in project solar energy in regions nationwide, visit www.narc.org/solarops.

Your NARC Staff will continue to monitor the Federal Government shutdown and debt ceiling debate, providing another update for you later this week, as additional information becomes available.

Finally, we welcome a new Program Associate this week, Taylor Markwith, who will be assisting with our solar Appropriations Update: Congress continues to work on funding FY14 and ending government shutdown. The House, at the opposition of the Senate, is still pushing through one-off FY14 funding bills to reopen parts of the government. Meanwhile, many congressional members are stating that the spending and debt limit issues will be resolved in unison. No comprehensive, clean solution to end the shutdown has made any successful movement through both chambers. Click HERE to access a report by the Heritage Foundation on the government shutdown and future of transportation funding.

Older Americans Act Reauthorization Mark-up Postponed upon Shutdown: A Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee postponed a long-awaited mark-up of the recent bipartisan proposal to reauthorize the Older Americans Act (S 1562). A copy of the bipartisan measure and bill summary are available at NARC's OAA reauthorization resource page. Click HERE for the Older Americans Act resource page.

GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

U.S. National Science Foundation (NSF) - Paleo Perspectives on Climate Change

Due Date: October 15, 2013

The goal of research funded under the interdisciplinary P2C2 solicitation is to utilize key geological, chemical, atmospheric, and biological records of climate system variability to provide insights into the mechanisms and rate of change that characterized Earth's past climate variability, the sensitivity of Earth's climate system to changes in forcing, and the response of key components of the Earth system to these changes. Click HERE for details.

STAR Communities Leadership Program Accepting Application

Deadline: October 15, 2013

The Sustainability Tools for Assessing and Rating (STAR) Communities Program is accepting applications from cities and counties to participate in the 2014 STAR Leadership Program. Leadership Communities will gain access to STAR tools, training and experts to help measure community's progress, strengths and needs. Financial assistance is available to a limited number of jurisdictions. More information is available HERE.

Appalachian Regional Commission: Livable Communities Assistance

Deadline: October 18, 2013

The Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC), in partnership with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), is offering assistance to Appalachian communities through the Livable Communities program, which helps small towns and rural communities improve their livability by promoting economic development while safeguarding the local landscape. The 2013 program will focus on developing local food systems as a means of promoting economic diversification. Up to five selected communities will receive a total of up to $250,000 in technical assistance and implementation support. The deadline for application has been extended to October 18, 2013. More information is available HERE.

Federal Emergency Management Agency – Pre-Disaster Mitigation Program

Deadline: October 18, 2013

The Pre-Disaster Mitigation (PDM) program provides funds to states, territories, Indian tribal governments, communities, and universities for hazard mitigation planning and the implementation of mitigation projects prior to a disaster event. Funding these plans and projects reduces overall risks to the population and structures, while also reducing reliance on funding from actual disaster declarations. PDM grants are to be awarded on a competitive basis and without reference to state allocations, quotas, or other formula-based allocation of funds. More information is available HERE.

Office Depot Foundation

Application Deadline: October 31, 2013

The Office Depot Foundation is offering grant support to nonprofit organizations, government agencies, libraries, and schools that bring systemic change to the communities they serve. The Foundation provides grants averaging $1,000 in three distinct categories. The focus of the "Giving Children Tools for Success" category is on activities that give young people tools to succeed in school and in life through education and inspiration. The "Building Capacity to Serve Communities" category targets programs that help nonprofit organizations to serve the needs of their communities efficiently. The purpose of the "Disaster Preparedness, Relief, Recovery, and Rebuilding" category is to support efforts that help people and communities prepare for disasters and rebuild and recover when disasters occur. Applications will be accepted from May 1 through October 31, 2013. Click HERE to review the guidelines.

U.S. Department of Agriculture – Rural Community Investment Initiative

Deadline: November 12, 2013

The USDA is seeking applications for grants that will be awarded to organizations to help rural businesses create jobs and spur economic development. USDA is making $5.6 million available through the Rural Community Development Initiative (RCDI), a program that generates economic activity in rural areas. Applications must be submitted to the USDA Rural Development state office where the applicant's headquarters are located. Information is available HERE.

NOAA - Climate Program Office FY 2014

November 14, 2013

NOAA advances scientific and technical programs to help society cope with, and adapt to, today's variations in climate and prepare for tomorrow's. Toward this end, the agency conducts and supports climate research, essential oceanic and atmospheric observations, modeling, information management, assessments, interdisciplinary decision support research, outreach, education, and stakeholder partnership development. The full announcement of opportunity is available on the Grants.Gov website. Click HERE for information.

Environmental Protection Agency – Urban Waters

Deadline: November 15, 2013

The EPA is soliciting proposals for projects that will advance EPA's water quality and environmental justice goals. Projects proposed for funding must take place entirely within and focus on one of 18 specific Eligible Geographic Areas, as listed in Section I.A and illustrated on the Urban Waters Small Grants program mapping website. More information is available HERE.

Wells Fargo Foundation and the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation

Deadline: December 16, 2013

Designed to support projects that link economic development and community well-being to the stewardship and health of the environment, Wells Fargo and the NFWF have launched a five-year, $15 million initiative that will be used to leverage other public and private investments with an expected total impact of over $37.5 million. Funding priorities for this program include supporting sustainable agricultural practices; promoting land and water conservation; facilitating investments in green infrastructure and energy efficiency; and encouraging broad-based citizen participation in project implementation. More information is available HERE.

National Endowment for the Arts

Deadline: January 13, 2014

The NEA Our Town Program aims to support creative placemaking projects that contribute toward the livability of communities and help transform them into lively, beautiful, and sustainable places with the arts at their core. Our Town will invest in creative and innovative projects in which communities, together with their arts and design organizations and artists, seek to improve their quality of life; encourage greater creative activity; foster stronger community identity and a sense of place; and revitalize economic development. More information is available HERE.

Community Forest Program Grant

Application Due: January 15, 2014

The US Forest Service's Community Forest Program (CFP) protects forests that are important for people and the places they call home. CFP provides funding to local governments, tribal governments and nonprofits to establish community forests that provide continuing and accessible community benefits. Click HERE for more information about available funding.

NSF - Cyber-Physical Systems

Due Date: January 29, 2014

The National Science Foundation (NSF) and the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) have a shared interest in advancing basic and applied research in Cyber Physical Systems (CPS), which are systems in which physical processes are tightly intertwined with networked computing. For transportation, CPS will provide the foundation necessary for a safe, efficient highway transportation system connecting vehicles, infrastructure, people, and goods in a vibrant, competitive economy. More information is available HERE.

NSF - Cyber-Enabled Sustainability Science and Engineering

Due Date: February 4, 2014

The Cyber-Enabled Sustainability Science and Engineering

(CyberSEES) program aims to advance interdisciplinary research in which the science and engineering of sustainability are enabled by new advances in computing, and where computational innovation is grounded in the context of sustainability problems. More information is available HERE.

Energy for Sustainability

Due Date: February 20, 2014

This program supports fundamental research and education that will enable innovative processes for the sustainable production of electricity and transportation fuels. Processes for sustainable energy production must be environmentally benign, reduce greenhouse gas production, and utilize renewable resources. Current interest areas in sustainable energy technologies are: Biomass Conversion, Biofuels & Bioenergy, Photovoltaic Solar Energy, Wind Energy, and Advanced Batteries for Transportation. Learn more about this program HERE.

NSF - Environmental Sustainability

Due Date: March 20, 2014

The Environmental Sustainability program supports engineering research that seeks to balance society's need to provide ecological protection and maintain stable economic conditions. Research in Environmental Sustainability typically considers long time horizons and may incorporate contributions from the social sciences and ethics. There are four principal general research areas which are supported: Industrial Ecology, Green Engineering, Ecological Engineering, Earth Systems Engineering. Click HERE to learn more.

UPCOMINGEVENT

Large Acreage Conservation Financing Webinar

October 9, 1:00-3:15 PM ET

Join the Northeastern Area Forest Legacy Program to learn about financing Conservation Easement Monitoring. This webinar will address key questions about different funding mechanisms, including: what are the national financing trends; what are the options for long term financing; how is financing established, managed and calculated; and are these mechanisms effective tools? ICMA Webinar: Iceberg Dead Ahead: Course Correction Leadership

October 17, 1:00-2:30 p.m. ET

Is your organization drifting off course? Do you even know? According to John Gardner, ailing organizations have developed a “functional blindness” to their own defects. Many jurisdictions have hit “organizational icebergs” – often due to the economic downturn. Others have seized opportunities to change their course for the better. “Iceberg Dead Ahead!” is an introduction to the topic of Course Correction Leadership that was first described in an article published in the October, 2012 issue of Public Management titled “Steering Clear of Organizational Icebergs.” To register, click HERE.

HUD Webinar on CDBG Grant Program

October 23, 2013, 3:30 – 5:00pm, ET

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced they will host a series of webinars aimed to discuss challenges with and potential improvements for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program. Specifically, HUD is looking for input from current grantees about common obstacles faced and to hear ideas for effective solutions. More information and a link for registration is available HERE.

Appalachian Regional Commission’s Transforming Appalachia’s Economy

November 6-7, 2013, Charleston, WV

Entrepreneurs are creating a new economic model in Appalachia--one based on local investment and local ownership--and their impact is already being felt in some of the Region’s core sectors, such as manufacturing, health care, and food production. The Toward Prosperity conference will explore ways Appalachian communities can develop an entrepreneurial ecosystem that provides support and growth opportunities for both new and established businesses.
