JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Planner – Transportation & Land Use
12-Month Temporary Full-time Position

Hiring Range: $23.50 to $26.00 (hourly rate)

Be part of a creative team in a dynamic & diverse region

Do you love analyzing information and translating evidence into policy and design guidance?

Triangle J Council of Governments (TJCOG) seeks an analyst to support transit corridor analysis activities, focusing on commuter behavior, transportation investment, and land use development. The successful candidate must have a positive, customer-focused orientation, be able to deliver high-quality products in a timely manner and thrive in a team environment.

Description of Work
The planner will be part of a multidisciplinary, regional planning department engaged in long-term, regional issues integrating development, environmental quality, and infrastructure. The candidate will work with the TJCOG planning team, and with partners in local, state, university, and regional organizations.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities
The planner must have thorough knowledge of principles, practices, tools and techniques related to land use and transportation. Excellent research and synthesis skills are required. GIS experience beyond a classroom setting is expected. Graphic design skills would be a strong plus. Excellent communication (writing, speaking, presenting) and interpersonal skills are imperative in this position, as well as the ability to understand different perspectives and to identify creative solutions. The person must be self-motivated, diligent, and able to work with limited direct supervision. The ability to use word processing, spreadsheet, database and presentation software is required.

Education and Experience
A master’s degree in planning, landscape architecture, environmental studies or related field is required with at least 2 years experience in the private or public sector related to municipal, county, sustainability, or regional planning. Candidates with a bachelor’s degree in a related field, extensive experience and demonstrated advanced knowledge in a related field, and that have documented participation in specialized instruction (e.g. associated with professional accreditation) will be considered.

Starting Salary & Benefits
Hiring range: Hiring Range: $23.50 to $26.00 (hourly rate)
Benefits: Temporary positions do not include benefits.
